Helpful Worship Information

We're Glad You've Come.

This is a safe place, a sanctuary of worship and prayer, comfort and justice-seeking for all God's people and all are welcome here ...just as you are.

Our church is a safe sanctuary for children..

We are proactive to protect our children with trained staff, enlightened volunteers, and aware congregants.

No concealed weapons of any type are allowed on Tippecanoe Church premises.

Our children are invited to remain in worship with us.

We ask children be accompanied by an adult at all times throughout our morning together!

During worship, children are welcome to use a book, stuffed animal, or crayons and papers from the bottom shelf of the cart at the back of the sanctuary. We want the sanctuary to be home to them.

When your child (1st grade and under) is restless, when you are, when those around you are...

you're/we're probably asking too much of everyone. Please let your child be in the nursery at times like this. Please return borrowed "goodies" to the cart after worship.

Infant through 1st Grade Care is available all during worship down the stairs to the right to the "nursery."

In the order of worship, please note... the * indicates times to stand as you are able.

Today in Worship

We open our hearts and minds to the texts, confronting the radical nature of God's wisdom.

"Trading Awarenesses: Migrations of the Soul"

This is a season of change and possibility... as the leaves change and birds flock to migrate. We become newly attentive and see we are indeed one with nature for ours is a Cosmic Christ! And so our awareness shifts with the season and soul-full-ness expands... if we let it!

Today's Wisdom Teachings point us to a new reality as we confront the radical nature of God's wisdom: When we face challenging times, our charge is to season our actions with our faith and care of self and others. Mark calls us to risky hospitality and dramatic personal choices and actions. James reminds us to ground ourselves in prayer and with one another.

Trade awareness... and our souls migrate!

*Thanks for being here today!
In deepest gratitude, we give God thanks for your presence with us in worship!*

WARNING....

If you take the Bible literally you may be disappointed here. We hope not, but we think you should know that we don't take all of scripture literally.... any more than Jesus did, but we DO take it all seriously.

As you enter, please use this time to greet friends, welcome newcomers, and join in the spirit of community.

As the music begins, gift yourself a few moments of quiet perhaps becoming present to your own life -- your desires and needs and joys. Perhaps using this prayer to center yourself.

God rejoices in your coming and meets you this morning in special ways that are meant just for you.

TODAY'S WORSHIP

Sixteenth Week After Pentcost ~ Ordinary Time ~

Now,
O Lord,
Calm me into a quietness
that heals
and listens...
and molds my longings
and passions,
my wounds
and wonderings,
into a more holy and human shape.

One: This season, we gather again in a holy place, a divine space...where peace is spoken.

All: Where grace is freely shown and each is specially known!

One: We believe we are no longer who we use to be! We trade awarenesses and honor the season's call to soul-full-ness....letting our lives migrate to new places within and beyond ourselves!

Every

I'm trading awarenesses; inviting my soul

Opening to God's Grace

✧ Opening Ourselves To God's Grace

✧ Sharing Our Inner Most Lives With God

One: James asks, "Are any among you suffering? They should pray."

All: We're urged to pray. But, Lord, sometimes it's exactly when I need to be praying most that it's hardest to pray at all!

One: James asks, "Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise."

All: But sometimes I have a hard time admitting to myself things are pretty good...wondering if it can last!

One: James asks, "Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them."

All: I know it does feel better if I ask for prayers when I'm sick at heart or sick in health. And yet, how rarely I ask for prayers!

Holiness, help me feel confident enough to really open myself to the whole of my life. Help me trust those around me to hear my prayers without passing judgment on my life. Give me Your heart's spirit, Lord, to ask for what I need most!

Let me find a way within myself to receive Your help and the trust of others! This is my prayer for awareness.

Let this invitation to personal sharing move you toward the Divine. Contemplate the mystery!

✧ You may wish to name with God ways you are truly suffering; or you may share your "song of praise"; or you may simply invite

Jesus to come sit beside you in the pew this morning shining his healing light all around and through you.

✧ A Moment With God For Each Of Us....

Let there be some quiet. We will be "stilled" together for 5 minutes or so! You have time....go deeper....

MaryBeth will play the tune once through, then we will start softly and build to our full voices.

Opening Ourselves To God's Grace

As we worship this day, we hear the Word spoken and wisdom shared! We are prompted to think in new ways about God and about ourselves.

We are no longer who we use to be. Awareness shifts. Souls migrate. We are on our way...being changed one act of love and compassion at a time.

In our common voice, let us lift our individual life stories to our God. I will lift up the one voice, all of us praying the bolded print. O Holy One, hear us praying:
